

As a frequent business traveller I encourage the FCC to uphold the current ban on inflight cell phone usage. It would be a serious distraction to my ability to work, sleep and read in the air.